FALL/SPRING:

Waterproof pants (we will start each day wearing rain pants for the dew, and will remove them as needed.)

Waterproof boots

Waterproof coat

Sweater or sweatshirt to wear under a rain coat (as needed)

Hat, gloves or light mittens during cool weather times

Sun hat or baseball cap for sun protection in sunny, warm weather times

Shoes or sandals (“strap in the back” rather than flip flops) if desired

WINTER:

Long underwear or layers

Thick wool socks or 2 pairs of socks

Wool/fleece sweater

Face protection (neck gator, balaclava, or scarf)

Warm and waterproof mittens or gloves

Hat that covers the ears

Warm boots that cover the ankles

Warm coat and snow pants or full body snow suit

 Note about boots: It is often necessary to wear waterproof snow boots before and following snow season.

Most rain boots do not keep the children’s feet warm enough in late fall and early spring.
